REGINA CONVENTION

WAS A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Government Insurance and Telephones Approved Navigation of the Saskatchewan to be Taken Up in August.

Ex-Mayor Short and G. B. F. Kirkpatrick returned on Monday evening from the convention of Boards of Trade at Regina. To the Bulletin, Mr. Short expressed himself as well pleased with the convention. The arrangement of subjects was not as good as might be and the discussion somewhat hurried, but this would be obviated in future, as a constitution, and a set of rules had been adopted that would facilitate matters at future meetings. The educational effect of the gathering and the exchange of ideas was very useful. The discussion covered a variety of subjects and were brief and to the point. The convention strongly favored government control of telephones, and a government plan of insurance.

The question of an insolvency law was brought up by Mr. S. W. Johnson, of Ames, Holden Co., Winnipeg. This is a matter for Dominion legislation, but the wholesalers want a procedure for the winding up of insolvent estates to be provided by Provincial legislation. The convention was favorable to the suggestion and passed a resolution supporting the requests. It was also suggested to the new Provincial Governments that uniformity should be preserved in the text books and school regulations in these provinces.

The city of Regina did itself proud in the entertainment of its guests. The ladies of the Saskatchewan capital were the first to capture the visitors who easily succumbed to their charms. Their form of entertainment was a garden party on the afternoon of the 29th. On the evening of the same day the resident Board of Trade gave a banquet to the delegates, and on the afternoon of the 30th, a garden party was given at Government House to the visiting representatives. The city council showed them about town and gave a demonstration of their new waterworks system.

Mr. Short says that building operations are quite active in Regina and that business property is higher there than in this city. The same is true of Moosejaw, which he visited, and he claims neither place has the municipal improvements or the reasons for high prices in real estate which prevail here. In Moosejaw Mr. Fry has just about completed the very satisfactory installation of a waterworks and sewage system.

The Saskatoon board of trade invited the delegates to visit their town and Major MacKenzie and T. W. Lines accepted their hospitality, so will not return until tonight or tomorrow.

The reports of the delegates assembled, was that business is good, everywhere throughout the Territories. Mr. Short's observations were that nowhere do crops look better than in this district.

Mr. C. H. Bell of Winnipeg, secretary of the Waterways Transportation Commission, was at the convention, and stated that he was coming to Edmonton in August relative to the navigation of the Saskatchewan.

The meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade will be held next year in Edmonton. It is the intention to enlarge its jurisdiction shortly by inviting Manitoba and British Columbia to join and have the one convention for the four Western provinces.

SASKATCHEWAN BILL READ.

Supplementary Estimates Contain Substantial Sums For Edmonton Public Buildings

Ottawa, July 4.—In the House on the second reading of the bill creating the province of Saskatchewan, Mr. Borden offered the same amendment as to the Alberta bill regarding education. The amendment was voted down ninety to thirty-seven. It was the same vote as on the Alberta bill, except for Morin, Dorchester, Conservative, who supported the amendment, which he voted against the last time. Mr. Greenway voted with the Government. He was absent last time without pair.

The House went into committee and good progress was made until the schedules of the constituencies was reached. Lake entered a protest against the manner in which the division was made, and contended that the older settlers were being deprived of a fair share of representation, and that the northern part is not entitled to nine out of 25 members.

The supplementary estimates amount to $13,414,973, making the total for the current fiscal year $81,979,370 against $81,517,821 for the preceding twelve months. The appropriations include two million and a half for the transcontinental railway additional to one million and a quarter in the main estimates, eight thousand for salaries of two additional judges of the Supreme Court of the North West, ten thousand additional for the Edmonton jail, seventy-five thousand for a census of Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan, twenty-five thousand for expenses of the Northwest land titles office, ten thousand for Edmonton land office and seven thousand for Edmonton immigration building.

Mr. Fielding announced that if the autonomy bills were completed to-morrow, the budget would be brought down Thursday.

THE NIXON CASE

An attempt has been made by a section of the Opposition press to stir up a sentiment of suspicion or hostility against the Department of the Interior over the case of Nixon, a sub-land agent at Macleod. Mr. Nixon was suspected of misappropriation of public funds; an investigation was held, and the defaulter found to be Nixon's son. The father made restitution of the money. The case came up in the House last week, when, speaking in reply to Mr. Foster, Mr. Oliver said:

"I am sure the House has been very far from edified by the efforts of the honorable member for North Toronto (Mr. Foster) to expose to the gaze of parliament and the country the misdoings of a man and his family, who, whatever their shortcomings may be, however guilty he may be of having supported the Liberal party in the past, whatever sin he may have committed in that particular, is not entitled to be clouded by that honorable gentleman, an ex-Minister of Finance of this Dominion, as a thief, under the cloak of his membership in this House. If this man is a thief, the courts are open, and the processes of law are available to the honorable member for Toronto. I say it is a cowardly act to accuse a man of theft under the privileges of a member of parliament. The same is true in regard to the whole procedure. If there is criminal guilt the courts are established for the punishment of that guilt."

"The government of this country comes in as administering its public affairs, not as administering justice. The courts are there, the means of justice are there; and I say it is an outrageous thing that such charges should be made here on the floor of this House under the privileges of parliament, charges that if they are true, should have been made under process of law long ago. Is it charged upon the Department of the Interior, upon this occasion, that every act of every man who does now, or ever has worked for the government, should be subject to our investigation, that we should prosecute every crime he has committed? If some official steals a ham, is it for us to set the machinery of the law in motion? The law is established for the punishment of officials here, there and everywhere."

"There is no policy about it, there is nothing but justice; and I ask for a humble citizen of the District of Alberta that his name and the misfortunes of his family shall not be paraded before this country, under the protection of the irresponsibility of members of parliament, which they would not dare do on their responsibility as individuals, and subject themselves to a prosecution before the court. Otherwise, why has this charge lain so long unpunished, when the mounted police and the courts of law are available in that country?"

"The honorable gentleman's ideas of the administration of justice in this country and mine are altogether different. There was a time when the administration of justice was under political control but that time has gone by; the administration of justice today is independent of political control and any man can get justice independently of any interference on the part of this government or of any of its departments. I want to explain the position of a sub-land agent and to show that that position has been misrepresented by the honorable member for North Toronto. He has referred to this sub-land agent, Nixon, as though he were a government official. He was doing government work but was not a government official in the ordinary sense of the word. These sub-land agents are merely public conveniences for the acceptance of homestead entries, and all the ordinary business that may be transacted by a land agent and the money that is received is transmitted to the land agent. The system is merely a convenience for the public and not a convenience for the government. The sub-land agent is therefore the convenience for the public. When this system was first established the sub-land agent was paid by commissions on his collections and not by salary. It was thought that was not a good way, and a small salary was paid in consideration of the work done by the sub-land agent. Now, the sub-land agent is not under any rules or restrictions by this department in any way, shape or form. He is supposed to be engaged in other business, he is not supposed to sacrifice all his time for the stipend he receives from the Dominion government. He may be an insurance agent, a real estate agent, or in any other line of business, but for the public convenience the government asks him to receive applications for homesteads, timber permits and hay permits, and to communicate them to the land office. The idea that the honorable member for North Toronto desires to convey, is that Nixon was a government official and that he was under the control of the government as though he were the hired servant of the government. As a matter of fact, he was not in that position at all, and we have no more control over his office in so far as he conducted government business than we had over his private affairs except in so far as the results of his work were concerned. As far as I am aware, not soon as it was discovered that there was a shortage in that office, an investigation was held. According to the statement of the gentleman who made that investigation, Nixon gave every facility for the investigation and as soon as the shortage was found Mr. Nixon paid it to the last cent. Whatever duty there might have been in that matter beyond that I am not prepared to say, but I say that the first duty of the government in the matter was to secure the return of the money so that nobody should be out of his money, and when that was done the question had to be considered as to what further proceedings should be taken. As to the allegation that Nixon was stealing money from some time in 1901 until the present time, that is that he had received money which he had not accounted for, I can only say that Nixon certainly should not have been a Dominion sub-land agent, he should not have been anywhere else than within the walls of a lunatic asylum if he actually stole the money at that time intending to keep it and to carry on his business in that way, because it must in the nature of things necessarily have been discovered and he must necessarily therefore have been subject to punishment."

THE PROVINCIAL CAPITAL

Speaking in the House on Tuesday last regarding the location for the Provincial capital Hon. F. Oliver said: (Hansard Report.)

"I am very sorry to delay the proceedings of Parliament at this stage of the session for the purpose of stating what has already been stated, and re-stated, and re-stated again, until the House must be tired of it and the country most unwilling to hear it again. The suggestion of my honorable friend (Mr. M. S. McCarthy) that the capital is placed at Edmonton, because Edmonton is at the terminus of the railway is quite in line with the argument generally put forward in support of the contentions of honorable gentlemen opposite in this matter. They have been determined to find cause of offense where no cause of offense existed, to find a crime where there was no crime, a grievance where there was no grievance."

"They have assumed that something has been done wrong because it has been done by this side of the House. There is no ground for such an assumption. The placing of the capital is not in the same position as the distribution of seats. The latter is, in the nature of things only temporary. The placing of the capital is supposed to be permanent. This Government in locating the capital must, for its own justification place it where it will, in all probability be most suitable for the province, not only as it is, but as it will be. It would be a very short-sighted Government and one that would take very little care of the interests committed to its charge if, having the responsibility of locating the capital of the new province, it should locate it elsewhere than at a point where it is likely to be, in future, if not at the present time, the centre of population and of traffic facilities."

It is the policy of the Government to construct a transcontinental railway. That railway will pass through the city of Edmonton. At the present time the Canadian Northern Railway is under construction to that point. The Canadian Pacific Railway already has connection with that point. The city of Edmonton is the one point west of Winnipeg which has already any reasonable probability of having the three great railway systems of the west. As a railway centre there is no other point equal to it, prospectively, west of Winnipeg between the Red River and the Rocky Mountains."

If we seek the geographical centre of the new province, Calgary is not near the centre. Calgary is within forty miles of the Rocky Mountains, it is close to the western side and near the southern end, and if there is any reason in having a central location for the capital, whatever other claims Calgary may have, it has certainly none of these. Edmonton is fairly centrally situated as between the easterly and westerly sides of the province and as between the northerly and southerly ends much more favorably situated than Calgary or any other business centre in the new province. That being the case, and it being a prospective railway centre, being already the centre of a very large population, as has been shown during the debate on the distribution, it seems to me that the fact that it is at the terminus of a branch line is no evidence against its suitability as to the capital, but is rather another evidence in its favour. Edmonton is located at a distance of 200 miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway main line, in a rich country tributary to it, and it, with 100 miles of railway that Edmonton country is already equal in population, or nearly equal, to the population of the Calgary country with 300 miles of railway. It is fair to suppose that Edmonton with 300 miles of railway will be immeasurably ahead of Calgary in population, as Edmonton will have approximately 300 miles of railway tributary to it within a short time. I think it would be strange if the Government of this country should not take all these facts into consideration in locating the capital of the province. It would certainly be very improper not to take into consideration the future prospects as well as the geographical location. There has nothing been said or shown, or can be said or shown, against the good judgment of the Government in placing the capital at Edmonton. It has been necessary for the Government to choose some point in the new province for a capital, and after they have done that, the matter passes out of their hands, and the new province will settle the question of a permanent capital."

—Leitchridge News: If Mr. Hamilton feels that the people of the West are being maltreated in this autonomy legislation and if he feels that they are so strongly opposed to the legislation, why in the name of common sense has he not resigned and gone to the people for a verdict? The argument that the Territorial Government is shortly to automatically pass out of existence and that therefore to ask for a new lease of power would be an unnecessary expense, is not a good one. If the Premier's soul is welling up within him because the North West is being forced to accept something it does not want, he should be amply justified, may he should feel duty bound to ask the people for a pronouncement. Why did he not do so? The answer is easy. He knew full well that if he opened the constitution of the North West for the school question as the issue he would be defeated. We submit that Mr. Hamilton is either insincere in his opposition to this autonomy legislation or else he lacks the courage to come before the people and stand or fall with the issue.

THE GUM REMOVED

THE microscope shows each leaf of tobacco is covered with long soft hairs which exude a viscid juice.

This is called the gum, and it covers the surface with a moist glutinous exudation.

Tobacco, to be good, must have all this gum driven out.

In Manicagua I procure tobacco that has all the natural gum "sweated" by the natural heat of the climate.

Only the dry, well matured leaf remains—the leaf that when I age for three years will give a cool, fragrant smoke—odorless and aromatic—that's the characteristic odor of my Pharaoh.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY

IN CONDENSED DESPATCHES

rief items from many sources tell the story of the day's events.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

New York, July 5.—So far the returns of the 4th of July casualties do not give so many as in former years, but later reports may reverse this impression. The casualties here are few on account of the stringent regulations. In Philadelphia over two hundred people were seriously injured, several may die and four were killed outright. There was a big fight. Other towns give lists of injured, but fatalities so far are few.

FELLED AT A BARN RAISING

Winnipeg, July 5.—During a barn raising on the farm of Peter Moran, of the Fourth concession, of Flos, a beam collapsed and the structure fell. William Barber had his back broken and died instantly, and Thomas McVane died two hours after.

WED AT REGINA.

Regina, July 4.—The marriage was solemnized today of R. J. Westgate, editor and manager of the West, and Miss Christie M. Sneath, daughter of Mrs. Annie Sneath, of Barrie, Ont.

BALL GAMES.

Winnipeg, July 5.—Grand Forks 4, Winnipeg 1; Grand Forks 8, Winnipeg 7, seven innings; Fargo 6, Crookston 3; Crookston 3, Fargo 1, Superior 8, Dakota 1; Superior 15, Dakota 4.

NEW BUILDINGS.

McDougall and Secord are asking for tenders for the construction of a three story brick building 50x100 feet, just east of the Bank of Montreal building, where the excavation has already been made. So great is the demand for such buildings that the entire floor space is already leased. The ground floor is to be occupied by Somerville's hardware and The Douglas Co's bookstore. The second flat is to be fitted with offices and the third with lodge rooms and offices.

This enterprising firm is also contemplating the erection of a similar building across the street just east of the National Trust Co's office. They have offers to lease the greater part of the space in it also, while its erection is yet a matter of conjecture.

YOUNG LIBERAL'S MEETING.

The Young Liberals meet in Gargley Hall at 8 o'clock this evening when a good musical program will be rendered and short speeches delivered. All members and all wishing to join are requested to attend.

ROOM FOR TWO LINES.

Mr. C. C. Van Arsdal, Divisional Engineer of the G. T. P., has returned from a trip over the surveys made between the city and the Prince Albert branch. He states that the route has not yet been definitely decided upon but several surveys have been made and the question will probably be fixed before long. When asked about the Winnipeg Tribune's story about the G.T.P. buying the C.N.R. instead of building the G.T.P., he smiled and said there was quite room enough for two railways into Edmonton and business enough for them in this vast territory and they would both be built without any doubt.

RECOMMENDED A LARGE GRANT

The board of trade held a special general meeting in the city hall yesterday. The attendance was very good. The minutes of the proceeding meeting were read and adopted.

President Campbell explained that the meeting had been called to consider the work of the Western Canada Immigration Association and the action the board should take regarding the request of the Association for a grant from the city council.

Mr. Paige, on behalf of the Association addressed the board, setting forth the work which was being done and asked the co-operation of the board in securing a grant of $500 from the council. In answer to inquiries he said the C. P. R. had contributed $5000 to the funds last year, which would probably be repeated this year. The C.N.R. had also given $2500. The Government had promised $10,000 towards the work and the towns throughout the west had contributed various amounts.

On motion it was resolved to ask the council to increase the grant from $100 to $500. President Campbell, Secretary F. T. Fisher and Messrs. Garvey, Revillon and McDougall were appointed a committee to approach the council on the matter.

The names of Messrs. E. Withenshaw, E. W. Davies, C. H. Gibson and P. Anderson were proposed and on motion these gentlemen were admitted to membership.

The secretary was instructed to give a letter of introduction from the board to Mr. H. McKay, who leaves in a short time on a trip to Scotland.

The meeting adjourned. There will be no meeting on Tuesday next, the date of the usual monthly meeting. The next meeting takes place on the second Tuesday in August.

I know of no business that requires so much close personal attention as cigar-making. The slightest variation in the grade of the tobacco, the least negligence in the maturing of the leaf, or careless in the making of the cigar, will be noticeable in the smoke.

It is for this reason I give such particular and personal attention to every step in the production of my Pharaoh cigar.

I have produced an excellent smoke, and all my time, energy and knowledge is devoted to keeping it at that high standard. The quality of my is more to me than several years' profits.

I might make a little more money, and make it a little more quickly by using a poorer grade of tobacco, less experienced workmanship, or any of the many cheapening methods known to the cigar trade, but

I wouldn't do it. The quality of my Pharaoh cigar is a matter of pride with me. I want it to be known as the cigar that is always good.

STRATHCONA RACES

THE NEGRO DOES HIS TRICK

A Good Day's Racing Promised for To-Day.—Good Beginning Yesterday

Twelve or fifteen hundred people gathered on the Strathcona driving park yesterday afternoon to see the races. The track was in excellent condition, the day was fine, the racing good and everybody appeared to enjoy it. The genial face of President Tipton was frequently seen as he moved about with a friendly greeting for everybody.

The judges were R. L. Rushton, G. Fletcher and E. Goode, and they were determined to give the public the best possible contests of speed. In the third heat they changed the drivers of Bon M. and Henry V. with the result that the last heat was decided in 2:26 instead of 2:30. The action in setting back Za Za to fourth place, in the fifth race though she came in first was commended by the spectators as she had painfully fouled Kitty Bell.

In the last race there was a good deal of speculation as to whether Young Virgin would pass out the distance or not, but it proved too far for him. After the half mile he fell back from his place in the lead and finished fourth. In the pony race there was not much doubt after they got away, as to who would win, but Tiger Jim kept Bunty Hen going some.

The three minute trot or pace was a walk-away for Miss Elizabeth but the other two made some mistakes and it was rather an accident that a contest of speed that either one won over the other.

Quite a crowd assembled in the evening to witness the performance of William Pickett, "The Dusky Demon" and his accompanying cow-boys. The throwing of the steer with his teeth, by Pickett, is truly a remarkable feat and was twice performed by the said William. In his efforts he had two nasty falls from his horse, either of which would have put an ordinary man out of business. The steers were noted more for their ability to run than for any untamed qualities and one of them could show paces to Bunty Hen for a quarter.

The Negro is game every inch and does his part of the performance well. It is not every day a man takes a steer's lip in his teeth and throws the animal on its back, with the steer all the time taking an active interest in the performance.

The riding of the bucking bronchos was rather a baroque. The most of them wouldn't buck. Somebody brought in a suspicious looking grey but it ran like a flow horse. The only one that set out up badly threw its rider. The boys can ride some, it is likely but their exhibition in that line was not wonderful. The attendance in the evening was almost up to that of the afternoon.

A good program of races is on for this afternoon, including a free-for-all trot or pace, a free-for-all run and a 2:25 trot or pace.

The result of yesterday's races was as follows:—

1st, three-quarter mile dash, Gawain 1st, Za Za 2nd, Katie Hen 3rd, Young Virgin 4th, Back and Run 5th, Time 1:18.

2nd, three minute trot or pace, 3 in 5, Miss Elizabeth 1st, Queen Victoria 2nd, Dan Albert 3rd, Time 2:35-2:39.

3rd, 2:25 trot or pace, 3 in 5, Charwater 1st, Doc M. 2nd, Billy Bridge 3rd, Henry 4th, Time 2:30-2:34.

The first was a road heat for 2nd place between Doc M. and Billy Bridge, Time 2:30-2:34 1-2-2:36.

4th, 1-4 mile pony race, 2 in 3, Bunty Hen 1st, Tiger Jim 2nd, Midnight 3rd, Wild Hel 4th, Dennis Fish 5th, Time 2:5.

5th, 1-1/8 mile dash, open, Gawain 1st, Katy Bell 2nd, Faulkner 3rd, Za Za 4th, Time 2:02.

Comfortable Living WITH A
Chatham Incubator

Poultry raising with a Chatham Incubator is a very profitable and easily managed occupation. Unless you want to go into it extensively it need take but very little of your time. Government reports show that the demand for chickens in Canada is greatly in excess of the supply and Great Britain is always clamoring for more. That means a steady market and good prices for chickens. You cannot raise chickens successfully with a setting hen. She is wasting time setting when she should be laying. While she is hatching and brooding a few chickens she could be laying five or six dozen eggs. The percentage of chickens she hatches is much less than that produced by the Chatham Incubator.

It will pay you to own a Chatham Incubator.

Chatham Incubators contain every improvement of importance in incubator construction that has been produced. They are made of thoroughly seasoned wood, with two walls, case within case. Between these walls mineral wool is packed forming the very best insulation. Each piece of the case is mortised and grooved and screwed, making the whole as solid as a rock. Chatham Incubators are equipped with scientifically perfect regulators which are an infallible means of regulating the temperature.

No cash to pay until October, 1905.

We will start you raising poultry for profit with a Chatham Incubator without one cent of money from you until next Fall. That means that you can take off seven or eight hatches and make considerable money out of the incubator before the first payment is due.

●We couldn't make this offer if we were not certain that if you accept it you will get complete satisfaction, if we were not positive that the Chatham Incubator will pay you a handsome yearly income.

This is a straightforward offer. We make it to show our supreme confidence in the Chatham Incubator. We want you to accept this offer as we are sure of the satisfaction our incubator will give. Every machine we have put out so far has made other sales in the same neighborhood.

Our offer is to send you a Chatham Incubator at once, freight prepaid by us without one cent of cash from you. You make your first payment in October, 1906. The balance to be paid in October, 1906, or if a Cash Buyer you get it cheaper. Could any offer be fairer or more generous?

Write us today for full particulars of our offer and mention this paper. Don't put it aside for another time as this special proposition may be withdrawn at any time.

NOXIOUS WEEDS IN TOWNS AND CITIES

The Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture has issued the following circular which is self-explanatory.

It may perhaps be money in the pockets of the people if their attention is called to Section 4 of the Noxious Weeds Ordinance which is as follows:

"Every owner or occupant of land shall destroy all noxious weeds thereon, and if he makes default in so doing he shall be guilty of an offence and on prosecution therefor by an overseer of the local improvement district or by an inspector or other officer under this ordinance, shall on summary conviction thereof be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 and costs.

"For the purpose of this ordinance the owner or occupant of any land adjoining a public road shall be deemed to be the owner or occupant of that portion of such road which lies between the centre line thereof and the adjoining land of which he is the owner or occupant." It is considered that this law applies to the residents of towns and cities in the event of such municipalities failing to pass by-laws dealing with the weeds. The growth of weeds throughout the streets and in the gardens cannot fail to create a bad impression on visitors and bear testimony to slothful and careless methods in the business and home life of the residents. Aside from this however the matter has a direct bearing on the welfare of the country as no one can be ignorant of the fact that seeds of weeds readily spread from the towns to the farms and vice versa.

The weeds listed as noxious are: Tumbling mustard, hare's-ear mustard, common wild mustard, ball mustard, tansy mustard, wormseed mustard, tansy mustard, wormseed stink weed, red root, Canada Thistle, Russian thistle, wild oats, ragweed, Russian thistle, wild oats, ragweed, Russian pigweed and blue bur.

Specimens of weeds may be forwarded by mail to the Department of Agriculture, Regina, for identification.

LOCAL

—The cement walk has been completed on the south side of Jasper avenue as far east as McDougall street.

—The Young Liberals meet in Gateway Hall this evening.

—The secretary's staff are busy paying the prizes won at the fair and the list is not yet available.

—A meeting of the Local Improvement Council No. 27, S. 4, will be held in the city hall, Edmonton, Saturday, July 15, at 2 p.m.

—City Engineer Thorold of Calgary has been exonerated by a committee of the city council who investigated charges of incompetence made against him by Ald. Head.

—A mass meeting of men will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mr. Parson's travelling secretary of the Y.M.C.A., will speak.

—Calgary Herald: Miss Ethel Clarke, the Prudis school teacher, and Miss Francis Clarke return north this afternoon to spend the holidays at Strathcona. They were the guests of Mrs. P. B. Cummer. Miss Francis Clarke has been attending the normal school at Regina.

—Two of the city police had an interesting time yesterday effecting the arrest of one McGillivray who had imbibed too freely and was somewhat disturbing the peace. He resisted arrest in a somewhat angry fashion but was finally led off with chains on his arms and is now doubtless meditating on the power of the law to keep the peace.

—Toronto Star: Mr. W. S. Fletcher, a former member of the teaching staff of the Collegiate Institute and who has been science master in Edmonton College has returned to his town. Mr. Fletcher will not go back again, as he prefers Ontario to the West, and expects to secure a position teaching before the holidays are over.

—The House of Commons' Committee on Banks and Commerce has reported this for the incorporation of two new banks, the Monarch and the Sterling, both with headquarters in Toronto. The capital of the former was removed from ten millions to two. Evidence sufficient was given to satisfy the Minister of Finance that the promoters have capital enough in sight to warrant the granting of their charter.

—A correspondent writes the Bulletin that a meeting of electors of the Sturgeon constituency was held at Lamoureux on July 3rd, when Mr. J. Knight of Sunnyside, was nominated as an independent candidate for the provincial elections. Mr. Knight and several others addressed the meeting. The nominee is a well-known farmer of the Sunnyside district, having been prominent among conservative workers in Federal campaigns.

PERSONAL

Miss Oliver returned from Regina last evening.

Major Griesbach, of Comox, B.C., father of Alderman Griesbach, and formerly superintendent of the N. W. M. P. at Fort Saskatchewan, is in the city.

STRUCK GAS

A considerable flow of gas was struck at the well in the east end of the city last evening. It is understood the volume is sufficient for commercial purposes and that the derrick will be moved and another hole started in a few days.
